GRAFT IS ENORMOUS

One New York Inspection District Pays $250,000 a Year.

New York, February 19.—Additional figures to show the enormous proportions of alleged graft payments to the police were obtained by District Atterney Whitman to-day. Twenty saloon and hotel keepers were questioned and one negro, Leroy Wilkins, later appeared before the grand jury to which he repeated his statements that he was peared before the grand Jury to which he repeated his statements that he was assessed from $60 to $100 a month by the police for protection.

The evidence that the district attorney has been gathering from hotel and saloonkeepers in the districts commanded by Captain Walsh, whose confession followed that of Policeman Eugene Fox, and led to indictment of former inspector, now Captain Sweeney, of graft charges, will be laid before the extraordinary grand jury beginning to-morrow. It will show, according to the district attorney, that more than 300 saloons, hotels, many
